Mary Louise - Thank you for the response and feel free to share. Is the list of issues/questions compiled by Council's office available? Having this would be helpful as I continue to modify and add to my own set of questions/issues. I'm sure there is a good rational as to why the Mayor's team, and not Council, was the first to meet with the legal team chosen by Council. While it would have been difficult for me to attend, I would have done my best to try and make the informal meeting with Thompson Hine if I had known. I still grade myself as way behind in understanding all the variables in play and would have gained much by attending.

Finally, in case it's not yet been stated, I would benefit from Thompson Hine leading a line by line, section by section, review of the LOI as presented. I just get the sense that we on Council are not holding the same understanding for each section and subsection, even after the LHA hearing, and believe a consistent understanding amongst us all of the LOI in its current iteration is vital.

Yours in service,

David W. Anderson
Council Member, Ward 1

Thanks kevin and david

We are working on a timeline for all of us to:

Get introduced to the legal team

Get a schedule to work through our ideas and contributions from the public Determine the best options and how to negotiate for Lakewood

There's lots to do so a calendar will probably help all of us. Please continue to hold Saturday the 11th. Also, we hope to have a briefing from kevin at Monday's COW.

David, do you mind if I send this to all council so everyone is on the same page?

ML.
